While the NLDS was filled with fantastic performances and exciting back and forth moments, the NLCS was more of the same from Los Angeles. They faced one of the best teams in the National League in the Rockies, and they gave up five runs, two of which came in the first inning. They faced the number one NL team in the Cardinals, who were determined to come back from a 5-0 deficit against the D-backs in the Wild Card Game, and they gave up 11 runs. With two games remaining in the playoffs, Los Angeles is a big favorite to win the World Series. Dodgers' Game Four Preview The Dodgers needed a win in Game 4 in order to stay alive. But with Max Muncy on the bench, a rookie who was named the NLDS MVP, their defense failed them yet again. The Dodgers couldn't get to Carlos Martinez, and he allowed them to score four runs in the top of the fourth. The Cardinals answered with a run in the bottom of the fourth, and the Dodgers couldn't push across any more runs. In fact, they couldn't push across any runs at all in the game. Meanwhile, Max Muncy had a huge game at the plate, hitting a double, triple, and a home run. Manager Dave Roberts said he was just hoping the Dodgers didn't fall into the same trap they did against the Rockies in the NLDS. He said he knew Muncy had the ability to be a dominant hitter in the playoffs, and Muncy proved him right. Roberts also commented on the bullpen. He said the Dodgers had some good pitchers, and they gave guys who had never done it before a chance to do it. But he said they were missing the veteran presence of Zach Greinke and Kenley Jansen. The Dodgers spent the offseason trying to get a starting pitcher to replace Kershaw, but they couldn't find
